Maritime Miscellany

NEW YORK, July 2—Shipping Board str. Alloway, in port here, had fire yesterday morning in some dunnage in the after part of the ship. Slight damage to cargo, battens and pipe casing.

Upon application of A D Lasker, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, Justice Donnelly, of the Supreme Court, last Thursday Issued an order attaching enough of the funds of the Banco Espanol del Rio de la Plata, of Argentina, now in the Hanover National Bank, in this city, to insure the payment of $496,000 due the government as part haymant for the sale of the str. Hamlin to Manuel Allende, of France, for $1.015,000. According to the Shipping Board complaint, Allende bought the steamship in April, 1220, and it was Shots were fired and one man was wounded.

LIVERPOOL, July 1—Str Bird City, which sailed from this port on June 24 for New York, returned on June 23 for fuel oil and sailed again June 39.

WASHINGTON, July 2—The naval tug Conestoga, missing at sea with all hands since March 25, was officially given up for lost to-day by the Navy Department and stricken from the naval list. The names of the Conestoga's crew were added to the iong list of the navy 'dead, cause unknown,' that includes the crew of the coller Cyclops and the coast guard cutter Tampa, lost during the war, and many other vessels.

A great area of the Pacific east of Guam, the tug's destination when she sailed from San Francisco, was combed by surface vessels and aircraft after the first suspicion that disaster had overtaken her. The names of the crew were made public some time ago.

Super 30—The United States Shipping Board has decided definitely to dispose of the 287 wooden ships of the Emergency Picet Corporation, it was announced to-day. Bids for them will be opened on July 39. The fieet is now riding idle in the James River and in the harbors of Seattle and New York. Robert H Montgomery, of New York, Robert H Montgomery, of New York, has been appointed to make a survey of the Shipping Board finances, it is stated.

July 1—Surgeon Samuel B Grubb, of the United States Public Health Service, to-day was detailed as chief quarantine of ficer of New York, acceeding Surgeon Leland E Cofer, who has been relieved on account of ill health. Dr. Grubb, whose headquarters will be at the Quarantine Station, Rosebank, S I. Is a graduate of the School of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. He entered the Public Health Service on May 17, 1887.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2—Constwise passenger service was returned to a practically normal basis with the salling of the steamer Alaska for Portland to-day. Coastal freighters are idle, however, al-fnost to a unit.

Coastal freighters are idle, however, almost to a unit.

On her maiden voyage the 14,000-ton steamer Manukai left yesterday for Seattle to start the Matson service for Puretde Floo, Hawaii, with its own steamers. Heavily burdened with passengers and freight the Japanese steamer Taivo Maru, ex-Cape Finisterre, made its first departure from San Francisco for the Orient to-day. Tank steamer Achaina, $4.400 deadweight tons, had its trial trip for the Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Company here yesterday.
